HOMELAND SECURITY CERT CERTIFICATE AWARDED TO JUDITH KOLBERG
ATLANTA AUTHOR OF 'ORGANIZE FOR DISASTER'

Judith Kolberg, and ten other members of DeKalb County were awarded a certificate of completion in the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program. The program, overseen by Homeland Security's Citizen Corps, trains volunteers in first aid, light search and rescue and fire prevention. "Spreading the word about disaster preparedness is a top personal and professional priority of mine. I'm proud to have completed the program. I plan to use my newfound knowledge to assist my neighbors. The program also helped me obtain information I can use in my writing and public speaking about disaster preparedness. For more information about the CERT program go to www.citizenscorp.com. To schedule a Home Disaster Preparedness and Vital Document Organizing workshop for your organization or company contact Kolberg at fileheads@aol.com. To order the book Organize for Disaster: Prepare Your Family and Your Home For Any Natural or Unnatural Disaster, go to www.squallpress.net.
